

CENTER FOR ADVANCED ECONOMIC STUDIES AND CENTER FOR DEMOCRACY FOUNDATION

are inviting you to

ONLINE PANEL DISCUSSION

COVID crisis, economic activity and the Serbian labour market

Wednesday, July 1, 2020, 11am

What are general economic consequences caused by the COVID epidemic and the state of emergency in Serbia?

What was a policy response given by the Government of Serbia to mitigate the negative impact of the crisis on the labor market?

How could be explained position of different occupations and social groups in the labor market?

Which policies and measures can be proposed for mitigation of the social and economic consequences of the COVID crisis?

Panelists

-  Kori Udovički – Center for Advanced Economic Studies
-  Representative of Inter-Ministerial working group for the Agenda 2030 implementation – tbd
-  Sarita Bradaš - Center for Democracy Foundation
-  Jovan Protić – International Labour Organization
-  Jelena Žarković – Faculty of Economics, University of Belgrade
-  Branka Anđelković – Center for Public Policy Research

-  Moderator: Nemanja Šormaz – Center for Advanced Economic Studies

General goal of the panel discussion is to facilitate dialogue among relevant experts and other relevant stakeholders who can comprehensively present the economic trends developed during the state of emergency, as well as their impact on changes in the labor market and the socio-economic position of vulnerable groups. The framework for the discussion will be data obtained through relevant researches on national and international level, as well as the Agenda 2030 and Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). We will specifically refer our discussion to the goals of decent work and economic growth (SDG 8), and indirectly about other relevant socio-economic consequences of changes in the labor market.

The panel is organized within the "SDG For All" Platform, as part of the Public Finance Reform Project (PFR) and with the support of the Governments of the Swiss Confederation and the Federal Republic of Germany. The Platform is being implemented in cooperation with the Ana and Vlade Divac Foundation, Center for Higher Economic Studies and Belgrade Open School and with partners: democracy, the Timok Youth Center and the Belgrade Fund for Political Excellence.

We are looking forward to your active participation!

The official language of the panel is Serbian. The report from the event will be delivered to all present in a timely manner.